UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

The United States of America and the defendant hereby jointly request that the time period from the time period within which () an information or indictment must be filed, or (XW) trial of the charges against defendant must commence. (XC) The parties seek the exclusion of the foregoing period because () they are engaged in plea negotiations, which they believe are likely to result in a disposition of this case without trial, and they require an exclusion of time in order to focus efforts on plea negotiations without the risk that they would not, despite their diligence, have reasonable time for effective preparation for trial, () they are engaged in plea negotiations, which they believe are likely to result in a disposition of this case without trial, and they require an exclusion of time in order to focus efforts on plea negotiations without the risk that they would not, despite their diligence, have reasonable time for effective preparation for trial, () they are engaged in plea negotiations, which they believe are likely to result in a disposition of this court adopted pursuant to trial, and they require an exclusion of time in order to focus efforts on plea negotiations without the Act; and Rule 50(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant understands that he/she has been fully advised by counsel of his/her rights guaranteed under the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution; the Speedy Trial Act of 1974, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161-74; the plan and rules of this Court adopted pursuant to that Act; and Rule 50(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant understands that he/she has a right to be tried before a jury within a specified time not counting periods excluded. The joint application of the United States of America and the defendant having been heard at a proceeding on the date below, the time period from The joint application of the United States of America and the defendant having been heard at a proceeding on the date below, the time period from the record and the defend	UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	APPLICATION AND ORDER OF EXCLUDABLE DELAY
The parties seek the exclusion of the foregoing period because () they are engaged in plea negotiations, which they believe are likely to result in a disposition of this case without trial, and they require an exclusion of time in order to focus efforts on plea negotiations without the risk that they would not, despite their diligence, have reasonable time for effective preparation for trial, () they need additional time to prepare for trial due to the complexity of case, () The defendant states that he/she has been fully advised by counsel of his/her rights guaranteed under the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution; the Speedy Trial Act of 1974, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161-74; the plan and rules of this Court adopted pursuant to that Act; and Rule 50(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant understands that he/she has a right to be tried before a jury within a specified time not counting periods excluded. The joint application of the United States of America and the defendant having been heard at a proceeding on the date below, the time period from The joint application of the United States of America and the defendant having been heard at a proceeding on the date below, the time period from The joint application of the united States of America and the defendant must be filed or () fial must commence. The Court finds that this exclusion of time serves the ends of justice and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial for the reasons discussed on the record and because (Signed of the Court finds that this exclusion of time serves the ends of justice and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial for the reasons discussed on the record and because (Signed of the Court finds that this exclusion of time serves the ends of justice and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial for the reasons discussed on the record and because (Signed of the Court finds that this exclusion of time will allow a	JOSE ADOLFO MACJAS
The parties seek the exclusion of the foregoing period because () they are engaged in plea negotiations, which they believe are likely to result in a disposition of this case without trial, and they require an exclusion of time in order to focus efforts on plea negotiations without the risk that they would not, despite their diligence, have reasonable time for effective preparation for trial, () they need additional time to prepare for trial due to the complexity of case, () they need additional time to prepare for trial due to the complexity of case, () The defendant states that he/she has been fully advised by counsel of his/her rights guaranteed under the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution; the Speedy Trial Act of 1974, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161-74; the plan and rules of this Court adopted pursuant to that Act; and Rule 50(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant understands that he/she has a right to be tried before a jury within a specified time not counting periods excluded. The joint application of the United States of America and the defendant having been heard at a proceeding on the date below, the time period from The joint application of the united States of America and the defendant must be filed or () Trial must commence. The Court finds that this exclusion of time serves the ends of justice and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial for the reasons discussed on the record and because () given the reasonable likelihood that ongoing plea negotiations will result in a disposition of this case without trial, the exclusion of time will allow all counsel to focus their efforts on plea negotiations without the risk that they would be denied the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation for trial, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.	the time period within which
disposition of this case without trial, and they require an exclusion of time in order to focus efforts on plea negotiations without the risk that they would not, despite their diligence, have reasonable time for effective preparation for trial, they need additional time to prepare for trial due to the complexity of case, The defendant states that he/she has been fully advised by counsel of his/her rights guaranteed under the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution; the Speedy Trial Act of 1974, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161-74; the plan and rules of this Court adopted pursuant to that Act; and Rule 50(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant understands that he/she has a right to be tried before a jury within a specified time not counting periods excluded. Defendant The joint application of the United States of America and the defendant having been heard at a proceeding on the date below, the time period from is hereby excluded in computing the time within which () an information or indictment must be filed or () Trial must commence. The Court finds that this exclusion of time serves the ends of justice and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial for the reasonable scussed on the record and because () given the reasonable likelihood that ongoing plea negotiations will result in a disposition of this case without trial, the exclusion of time will allow all counsel to focus their efforts on plea negotiations without the risk that they would be denied the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation for trial, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. SO ORDERED.	an information or indictment trial of the charges against trial	nt must be filed, or (XW) defendant must commence. (XC)
disposition of this case without trial, and they require an exclusion of time in order to focus enors on plea negotiations without the risk that they would not, despite their diligence, have reasonable time for effective preparation for trial, they need additional time to prepare for trial due to the complexity of case, they need additional time to prepare for trial due to the complexity of case, they need additional time to prepare for trial due to the complexity of case, The defendant states that he/she has been fully advised by counsel of his/her rights guaranteed under the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution; the Speedy Trial Act of 1974, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161-74; the plan and rules of this Court adopted pursuant to that Act; and Rule 50(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant understands that he/she has a right to be tried before a jury within a specified time not counting periods excluded. Defendant The joint application of the United States of America and the defendant having been heard at a proceeding on the date below, the time period from is hereby excluded in computing the time within which () an information or indictment must be filed or () Trial must commence. The Court finds that this exclusion of time serves the ends of justice and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial for the reasons discussed on the record and because () given the reasonable likelihood that ongoing plea negotiations will result in a disposition of this case without trial, the exclusion of time will allow all counsel to focus their efforts on plea negotiations without the risk that they would be denied the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation for trial, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. SO ORDERED.	The parties seek the exclusion of the foregoing period	because
The defendant states that he/she has been fully advised by counsel of his/her rights guaranteed under the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution; the Speedy Trial Act of 1974, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161-74; the plan and rules of this Court adopted pursuant to that Act; and Rule 50(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant understands that he/she has a right to be tried before a jury within a specified time not counting periods excluded. Defendant The joint application of the United States of America and the defendant having been heard at a proceeding on the date below, the time period from is hereby excluded in computing the time within which () an information or indictment must be filed or () trial must commence. The Court finds that this exclusion of time serves the ends of justice and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial for the reasons discussed on the record and because (given the reasonable likelihood that ongoing plea negotiations will result in a disposition of this case without trial, the exclusion of time will allow all counsel to focus their efforts on plea negotiations without the risk that they would be denied the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation for trial, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. SO ORDERED.	disposition of this case without trial, and they require negotiations without the risk that they would not, desp preparation for trial,	an exclusion of time in order to focus efforts on plea bite their diligence, have reasonable time for effective
Sixth Amendment to the Constitution; the Speedy Trial Act of 1974, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161-74, the phase and tute of this Court adopted pursuant to that Act; and Rule 50(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant understands that he/she has a right to be tried before a jury within a specified time not counting periods excluded. The joint application of the United States of America and the defendant having been heard at a proceeding on the date below, the time period from	()
on the date below, the time period from	Sixth Amendment to the Constitution; the Speedy Tri this Court adopted pursuant to that Act; and Rule 500 understands that he/she has a right to be tried before a Defendant Counsel for Defendant	b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant a jury within a specified time not counting periods excluded. For U.S. Attorney, E.D.N.Y. on the date below, the time period from is hereby excluded in computing the time within whi must commence. The Court finds that this exclusion the public and the defendant in a speedy trial for the (ch () an information or indictment must be filed or () trial in of time serves the ends of justice and outweigh the interests of reasons discussed on the record and because it ongoing plea negotiations will result in a disposition of this ill counsel to focus their efforts on plea negotiations without the eccessary for effective preparation for trial, taking into account
Dated: Brooklyn, N.Y 7 20 25 United States Magistrate Judge	Dated: Brooklyn, N.Y	